YO TOURS · AUDIO GUIDE

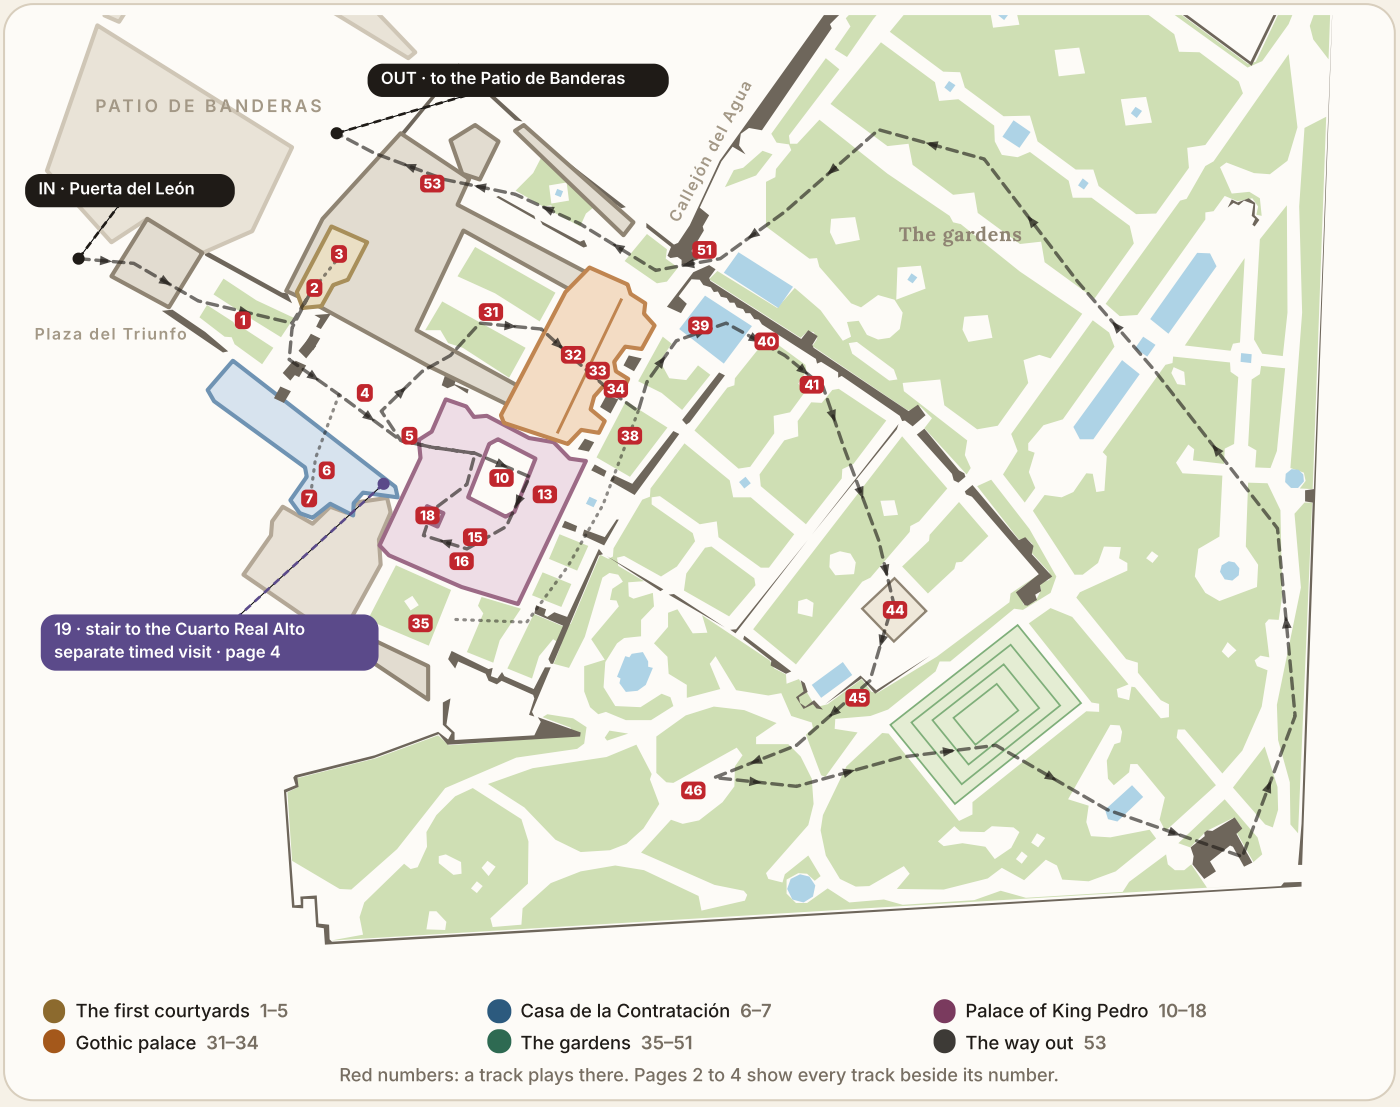

Real Alcázar de Sevilla

Eleven centuries in one walk: the first courtyards, the palace of King Pedro, the Gothic palace and the gardens, 26 main stops plus 7 short Extras in one walking order. The guide comes in three lengths.

1 The numbers are the Alcázar's own. The red numbers are the ones on its official leaflet, 1 to 53. The guide speaks them with the Spanish name: "number 15, the Salón de los Embajadores".

2 The coloured circle beside a number is the track to play there, in track order. Hollow circles are short, optional Extras. A filled red number means a track plays there; an outlined one, you walk past.

3 Each track ends by naming the next number. In Essential and Highlights a short line tells you where to go next. The plan is drawn simply, not to scale.

Red numbers: a track plays there. Pages 2 to 4 show every track beside its number.

In at the Puerta del León, out through the Apeadero (53) into the Patio de Banderas. Once you are out you cannot come back in, so finish the gardens first. The Cuarto Real Alto upstairs (20–30) is a separate, timed visit; its two Extras are on page 4.

YO TOURS · REAL ALCÁZAR · UPPER FLOOR

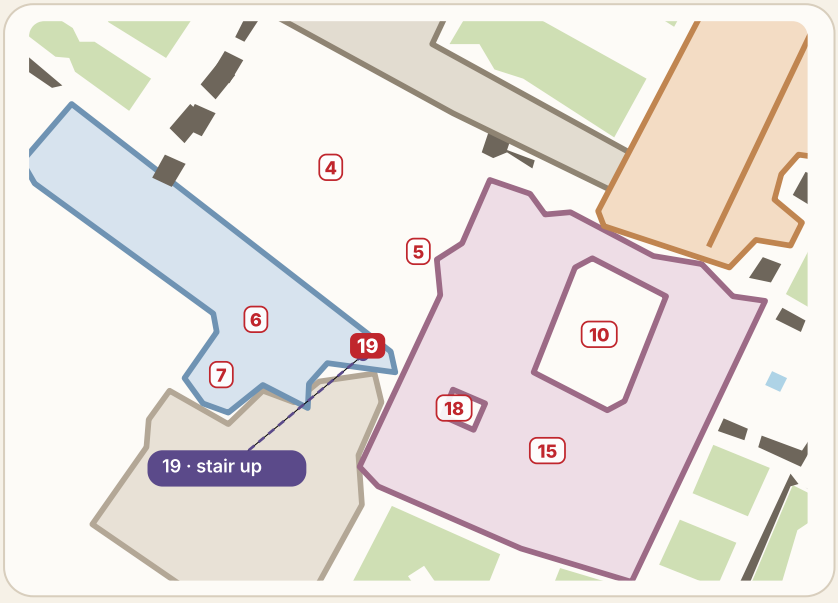

Optional · The Cuarto Real Alto, 20 to 30

The upper floor of the palace of King Pedro, still a royal residence, is a separate, timed visit. Our two Extras, 34 and 35, play there and are outside the three lengths.

34 20 Dormitorio de Isabel la Católica
Extra Isabel's rooms and a tiled altar

35 23 Comedor de Gala
Extra A royal house still in use

Where the stair is

Number 19 on the leaflet is the stair to the upper floor. It is in the corner of the Patio de la Montería (4) where the front of the palace (5) meets the Cuarto del Almirante (6).

Play 34 at number 20, the Dormitorio de Isabel la Católica, and 35 at number 23, the Comedor de Gala.

The leaflet prints a second 11 up here, on the open courtyard; the guide never uses it.
