Route sheet · where to stand for every track, in walking order

FLORENCE · OLTRARNO · V5 TEST BUILD · OCTOBER 2026

TOUR NO. 43

79 tracks

~177 min · English

How it works. Track numbers are the walking order and match the audio file names. Each track ends by naming the next place to go. A red number marks a headline stop.

Iliad Room (23), closed until 25 October 2026. Staff send visitors from the Sala della Stufa (22) back to the Room of Jupiter. Play 033–035 in Jupiter, then 026–032 in Saturn, then carry on from 036. Skip 022–025.

Royal Apartments. Guided visits only, with set times. If yours comes earlier, play 047–048 around it and pick up the Palatine where you left off.

Before you go in

Piazza Pitti, facing the palace. The ticket office is on the right of the façade.

001	Piazza Pitti — Before you go in	On Piazza Pitti, facing the palace. The ticket office is on the right-hand side of the façade; the way in is the central portal into the Ammannati Courtyard, where the main staircase and the lifts are on the right-hand side.

Palatine Gallery · first floor

The museum's one-way route: Rooms 1–3, the Volterrano Wing (4–11), the inner rooms (14–23), then the five Planet Rooms from Saturn (24) to Venus (28). You leave through the Sala delle Nicchie. Stairs and lifts are on the right side of the Ammannati Courtyard.

002	ROOMS 1–2 The Palatine Gallery — Antechamber and Gallery of the Statues	In the first rooms of the Palatine Gallery on the first floor: the antechamber, then the long Gallery of the Statues that leads to the Castagnoli Room.
003	ROOM 3 The Castagnoli Room	In the Castagnoli Room, at the end of the Gallery of the Statues: the room with the large round inlaid-stone table at its centre.
004	ROOM 3 The Table of the Muses	Beside the round table in the centre of the Castagnoli Room. Walk around it slowly, without touching or leaning on it.
005	ROOM 4 Sala delle Allegorie — the Volterrano Wing	At the doorway on the right of the Castagnoli Room, or just inside the Sala delle Allegorie, the first room of the Volterrano Wing.
006	ROOM 5 Sala delle Belle Arti — the Room of the Fine Arts	In the Sala delle Belle Arti, the second room of the Volterrano Wing, next to the Sala delle Allegorie.
007	ROOM 6 Sala di Ercole — the Room of Hercules	In the Sala di Ercole, the third room of the Volterrano Wing, after the Sala delle Belle Arti.
008	ROOM 7 Sala dell'Aurora — the Room of Dawn	In the Sala dell'Aurora, the next room of the Volterrano Wing after the Sala di Ercole.
009	ROOM 8 Sala di Berenice — Titus and Berenice	In the Sala di Berenice, in the middle of the Volterrano Wing, after the Sala dell'Aurora.
010	ROOM 9 Sala di Psiche — Psyche and Salvator Rosa	In the Sala di Psiche, the next room of the Volterrano Wing after the Sala di Berenice.
011	ROOM 11 Sala dell'Arca — the Room of the Ark	In the Sala dell'Arca, the last room of the Volterrano Wing, reached through the small Sala della Fama.
012	ROOM 14 Sala di Prometeo — A Room of Tondi	In the Sala di Prometeo, the first room after the Poccetti Corridor. Stand in the middle and look up first, then around the walls.
013	ROOM 14 Filippo Lippi — The Bartolini Tondo	In the Sala di Prometeo, in front of Filippo Lippi's large round panel. Stand close enough to see the small scenes in the background.
014	ROOM 17 Sala di Flora and the Small Rooms	In the Sala di Flora, between the Sala della Giustizia behind you and the Sala dei Putti ahead. Stand in the centre and look up.
015	ROOM 19 Sala di Ulisse — The Room of Ulysses	In the Sala di Ulisse, the room after the Sala dei Putti. Stand under the centre of the ceiling.
016	ROOM 19 Raphael — Madonna dell'Impannata	In the Sala di Ulisse, in front of Raphael's Madonna dell'Impannata. Stand back far enough to see the whole group and the window behind it.
017	ROOM 20 Napoleon's Bathroom	In Napoleon's Bathroom, the small room between the Sala di Ulisse and the Sala dell'Educazione di Giove.
018	ROOM 21 Sala dell'Educazione di Giove — The Childhood of Jupiter	In the Sala dell'Educazione di Giove, the room after Napoleon's Bathroom. Look up at the ceiling first.

019	ROOM 21 Cristofano Allori — Judith with the Head of Holofernes	In the Sala dell'Educazione di Giove, in front of Allori's Judith. Start close, then take a step back.
020	ROOM 21 Caravaggio — Sleeping Cupid	Usually hung in the Sala dell'Educazione di Giove, near Allori's Judith; if it is not on the wall, ask the room staff where it is currently shown. Stand close.
021	ROOM 22 Sala della Stufa — The Grand Duke's Hot Room	In the Sala della Stufa, the small room after the Sala dell'Educazione di Giove, just before the door to the atrium of the Moor's Staircase and the Sala dell'Iliade. Stand in the middle so you can turn to each wall.
022	ROOM 23 Sala dell'Iliade — The Room of the Iliad	In the Sala dell'Iliade, entered from the Sala della Stufa through the atrium of the Moor's Staircase. Stand near the marble group in the centre and look up at the ceiling.
023	ROOM 23 Andrea del Sarto — The Passerini Assumption	In the Sala dell'Iliade, in front of the tall altarpiece of the Virgin rising above the apostles around her tomb. Step back far enough to take in both halves.
024	ROOM 23 Lorenzo Bartolini — Charity	In the Sala dell'Iliade, beside the white marble group at the centre of the room. Walk round it until you find the scroll in a child's hands.
025	ROOM 23 Artemisia Gentileschi — Judith and her Maidservant	In front of Artemisia Gentileschi's Judith and her Maidservant, two women in a dark tent with a sword and a basket. It hangs here in the Sala dell'Iliade.
026	ROOM 24 Sala di Saturno — The Room of Raphael	In the Sala di Saturno, the first of the five Planet Rooms on the normal route. Stand in the middle of the room, where you can see the ceiling and the Raphaels on the walls.
028	ROOM 24 Raphael — La Gravida	In the Sala di Saturno, in front of Raphael's half-length portrait of a young woman against a black background, one hand on her belly and the other holding a glove. This painting used to hang in the Iliad Room; the museum now lists it here.
029	ROOM 24 Raphael — Pope Leo X with Two Cardinals	In the Sala di Saturno, in front of the large, dark portrait of a seated pope at a table, with a cardinal standing on either side behind him. Get close enough to see the golden knob on the back of his chair.
030	ROOM 24 Raphael — Madonna del Granduca	In the Sala di Saturno, in front of the small, dark painting of the Virgin standing with the Christ Child in her arms against a black background.
031	ROOM 24 Raphael — Madonna del Baldacchino	In the Sala di Saturno, in front of the largest Raphael in the room: the Virgin enthroned beneath a great canopy, with four saints and two small angels at her feet. Step back first to take in the whole panel.
032	ROOM 24 Raphael — Portraits of Agnolo and Maddalena Doni	In the Sala di Saturno, in front of the pair of matching half-length portraits of a husband and wife. Look for the young woman's jewelled pendant.
033	ROOM 25 Sala di Giove — The Throne Room	In the Sala di Giove, the Room of Jupiter, between the Saturn and Mars rooms. Stand near the middle and look up at the vault.
034	ROOM 25 Raphael — La Velata (The Veiled Lady)	In the Sala di Giove, in front of Raphael's portrait of a woman in white silk with a veil over her hair.
035	ROOM 25 Andrea del Sarto — Young Saint John the Baptist	In the Sala di Giove, in front of Andrea del Sarto's young Saint John the Baptist: a youth half-wrapped in bright red drapery against a dark background, holding a scroll.
036	ROOM 26 Sala di Marte — The Room of Mars	In the Sala di Marte, the third of the five Planet Rooms on today's route, entered from the Sala di Giove. Stand near the middle and look up at the ceiling first.
037	ROOM 26 Rubens — The Four Philosophers	In the Sala di Marte, in front of the smaller of the two Rubens paintings: four men in dark clothes around a table, with a marble bust above them. The painting normally hangs in the Sala di Marte; if it isn't here, ask an attendant.
038	ROOM 26 Rubens — The Consequences of War	In the Sala di Marte, in front of the large Rubens allegory: an armoured Mars striding forward, a woman clinging to him, figures fallen underfoot. The painting normally hangs in the Sala di Marte; if it isn't here, ask an attendant.
039	ROOM 26 Titian — Portrait of a Man (The English Gentleman)	In front of Titian's half-length portrait of a bearded young man in black, normally in the Sala di Marte; if it has moved, look in the next room, the Sala di Apollo.
040	ROOM 27 Sala di Apollo — The Room of Apollo	In the Sala di Apollo, the fourth Planet Room on today's route, entered from the Sala di Marte. The Sala di Venere, the last room, is beyond it.
041	ROOM 27 Titian — The Penitent Magdalene	In the Sala di Apollo, in front of Titian's half-length Magdalene: a woman covered by her long copper-gold hair, looking upward.
042	ROOM 28 Sala di Venere — The Room of Venus	In the Sala di Venere, the last room of today's Palatine route and the first room of the old Medici sequence. Canova's marble Venus stands in the centre.

043	ROOM 28 Canova — Venus Italica	In the centre of the Sala di Venere, beside Canova's marble Venus. Walk all the way round her as you listen.
044	ROOM 28 Titian — The Concert	In the Sala di Venere, in front of Titian's Concert: three half-length men around a keyboard instrument.
045	ROOM 28 Titian — Portrait of Pietro Aretino	In the Sala di Venere, in front of Titian's half-length portrait of a heavy bearded man in a wide red cloak and a gold chain.
046	ROOM 28 Titian — Portrait of a Lady (La Bella)	In the Sala di Venere, in front of Titian's half-length portrait of a young woman in a blue dress with burgundy sleeves. After this, the way out is through the Sala delle Nicchie.

Imperial & Royal Apartments · first floor

Staff-led group visit of about 30 minutes, from the Palatine entrance atrium. Play 047 while you wait and 048 afterwards. Don't play audio during the visit.

047	MEETING POINT Imperial and Royal Apartments — Before your visit	At the Royal Apartments meeting point in the entrance atrium of the Palatine Gallery, first floor. Play this while you wait for your group; museum staff lead the visit itself, so please keep the audio paused inside. Reservation is compulsory; be at the meeting point about five minutes before your slot.
048	AFTER THE VISIT Imperial and Royal Apartments — After your visit	Anywhere once your staff-led group has left the Royal Apartments, on the first floor. From here the main stairs and lifts go up to the second floor; if your visit came before the Palatine Gallery, staff can take you into it now.

Gallery of Modern Art · second floor

From the landing, follow the corridor to the left.

049	ENTRANCE Gallery of Modern Art — A different century	At the entrance to the Gallery of Modern Art on the second floor. From the stairs or lifts, follow the corridor and turn left; the rooms are numbered from 1 to 30 and run in a loop.
050	ROOMS 1–2 The Neoclassical rooms — marble, and Napoleon's years	In Rooms 1 and 2, the first rooms of the loop. Room 1 holds Tenerani's marble Psyche; Room 2 holds Benvenuti's large canvas of the Saxons' oath and Canova's colossal head of Napoleon.
051	ROOM 2 Canova and workshop — Colossal Head of Napoleon	In Room 2 of the Gallery of Modern Art, in front of the colossal marble head of Napoleon.
052	ROOM 3 Stefano Ussi — The Expulsion of the Duke of Athens	In Room 3 of the Gallery of Modern Art, in front of the huge history painting that fills one wall. Step back to take in the whole crowd.
053	ROOM 5 Romanticism and history painting	In Room 5 of the Gallery of Modern Art, among the large history paintings. Rooms 6 to 9 follow.
054	ROOMS 6–9 Giovanni Fattori — Self-Portrait, 1854	In the rooms after Room 5, where the portrait rooms begin. The museum does not publish this painting's room; look for a small half-length self-portrait of a young man, dated 1854. If you can't find it, the story works anywhere in Rooms 6 to 9.
055	ROOMS 10–13 The Macchiaioli rooms	In Rooms 10 to 13, the heart of the Macchiaioli display; Room 6 holds their first experiments. Play this as you enter Room 10.
056	MACCHIAIOLI ROOMS Giovanni Fattori — Lo Staffato	In front of Fattori's Lo Staffato, if it is on view; the museum does not publish its room. Look in the Macchiaioli rooms for a horizontal canvas of a galloping horse dragging a fallen soldier.
057	MACCHIAIOLI ROOMS Giovanni Fattori — La Rotonda di Palmieri	In front of Fattori's Rotonda di Palmieri, if it is on view; the museum does not publish its room. It is tiny, only 12 by 35 centimetres, so look closely along the walls of the Macchiaioli rooms.
058	ROOMS 17–30 Toward the twentieth century	In Room 17, at the start of the last stretch of the loop, which runs on to Room 30.
059	FINAL ROOMS Giorgio de Chirico — Metaphysical Composition, after The Song of Love	In the last rooms of the Gallery of Modern Art, in front of De Chirico's Metaphysical Composition, if it is on view; the museum does not publish its room. Look for a classical head of Apollo beside a red rubber glove.

Museum of Fashion & Costume · second floor

Palazzina della Meridiana: back to the landing, corridor to the right, a staircase of two short flights (stair-lift available). A dead end: leave the way you came. Displays rotate, so the tracks avoid room-by-room claims.

060	ENTRANCE The Palazzina della Meridiana	At the entrance to the Museum of Fashion and Costume, in the Palazzina della Meridiana on the second floor, reached from the landing along the corridor to the right and a staircase of two short flights, with a stair-lift. This is a dead end: you leave the way you came.
061	MEDICI GARMENTS The funeral clothes of Cosimo I, Eleonora di Toledo and Don Garzia	In front of the case with the three Medici funeral garments, which are permanently on display. The museum does not use room numbers.
062	GALLERIES Three centuries of dress — the rotating display	Anywhere in the museum's galleries beyond the Medici garments. The displays rotate, so play this wherever you like; when you've finished, go back the way you came to the second-floor landing.

Russian Icons & Palatine Chapel · ground floor

Off the Ammannati Courtyard.

063	ROOMS 1–4 Museum of Russian Icons — Cosimo III's summer apartment	Ground floor, off the Ammannati Courtyard: follow the signs for the Palatine Chapel and Russian Icons, and play this in the first frescoed room.
064	ROOM 1 The two oldest icons — The Beheading of Saint John the Baptist and "All Creatures Rejoice in You"	Room 1, in front of the small Beheading of Saint John the Baptist; its companion, the Mother of God "All Creatures Rejoice in You", should be nearby; its room is not stated officially.
065	CHAPEL The Palatine Chapel	The large central hall of the ground-floor apartment, beside the icon rooms. Stand near the middle, then look up at the vault and along the walls.

Boboli Gardens

Up from the back of the courtyard. Can be done before the palace. Stops in walking order, uphill first, then down the Viottolone. Some areas are fenced for the Boboli 2030 restoration but visible from the paths.

066	STOP 1 The Ammannati Courtyard and the first view	At the back of the Ammannati Courtyard, with the palace behind you and the garden rising ahead; the Artichoke Fountain is on the terrace above. The Bacchino is reached from the left, east, side of the courtyard; an accessible tunnel under the loggia leads to the same little square.
067	STOP 2 The Bacchino — Morgante on a Tortoise	In the small square at the Bacchus exit, on the east side of the garden by the palace and the Vasari Corridor wall; the figure on the turtle sits in the fountain.
068	STOP 3 Buontalenti — the Grotta Grande	Beside the Bacchino, along the same east wall near the entrance to the Vasari Corridor. Stand in front of the façade; go inside only if the gate is open.
069	STOP 4 The Grotta di Madama	Above and behind the Grotta Grande, in the small Giardino di Madama by the old convent wall, reached by the narrow side paths. The grotto is normally closed, so you see it from outside.
070	STOP 5 The Amphitheatre	At the edge of the amphitheatre, ideally at its palace end with the palace behind you and the obelisk in front. The stone tiers are fenced off for restoration; view it from the paths around the rim.
071	STOP 6 Stoldo Lorenzi — the Neptune Fountain	On the terrace above the amphitheatre, on the path around the Neptune basin. The basin area is fenced off during restoration; view the fountain from the path.
072	STOP 7 The Kaffeehaus and the view	At the Kaffeehaus, the green-and-cream pavilion with a domed, turreted roof on the eastern side of the upper garden. Stand at the terrace edge, facing the city.
073	STOP 8 The Knight's Garden	Inside the Giardino del Cavaliere, the small walled garden on the bastion at the top of the hill. The building is the Casino del Cavaliere, home of the Porcelain Museum, closed for refurbishment. The Abundance statue is below you, at the head of the central axis.
074	STOP 9 Giambologna and Pietro Tacca — Abundance	At the foot of the colossal statue of Abundance, at the top of the central axis, just below the Knight's Garden. Turn around to look back down the hill toward the palace.
075	STOP 10 The Viottolone	On the Viottolone, the long cypress avenue running down the south-western slope from the top of the hill to the Isolotto. Part of the labyrinth of paths beside it is fenced off for restoration; the avenue itself is open.
076	STOP 11 Giambologna — the Isolotto and Oceanus	At the rim of the oval Isolotto basin, at the foot of the Viottolone. The island's inner area is closed for restoration, so view the fountain from the outer ring. The Porta Romana gate is right beside the pool.
077	STOP 12 The Limonaia	Outside the Limonaia, the long, low Lemon House on the western, Via Romana side of the garden, north of the Isolotto toward the palace. Its gates are closed for restoration; view it from outside. The Annalena gate is close by.

WAYS OUT
Ways out of the garden

Play it on the way to whichever gate you choose: Palazzo Pitti through the Ammannati Courtyard, Annalena on Via Romana, Porta Romana beside the Isolotto, or Forte di Belvedere at the top of the hill.

Closing

Anywhere you like, once you've finished.

079

Closing

Anywhere you like once you've finished, at whichever gate or door you came out of: a bench, a café table, the street outside.
