YO TOURS · AUDIO GUIDE

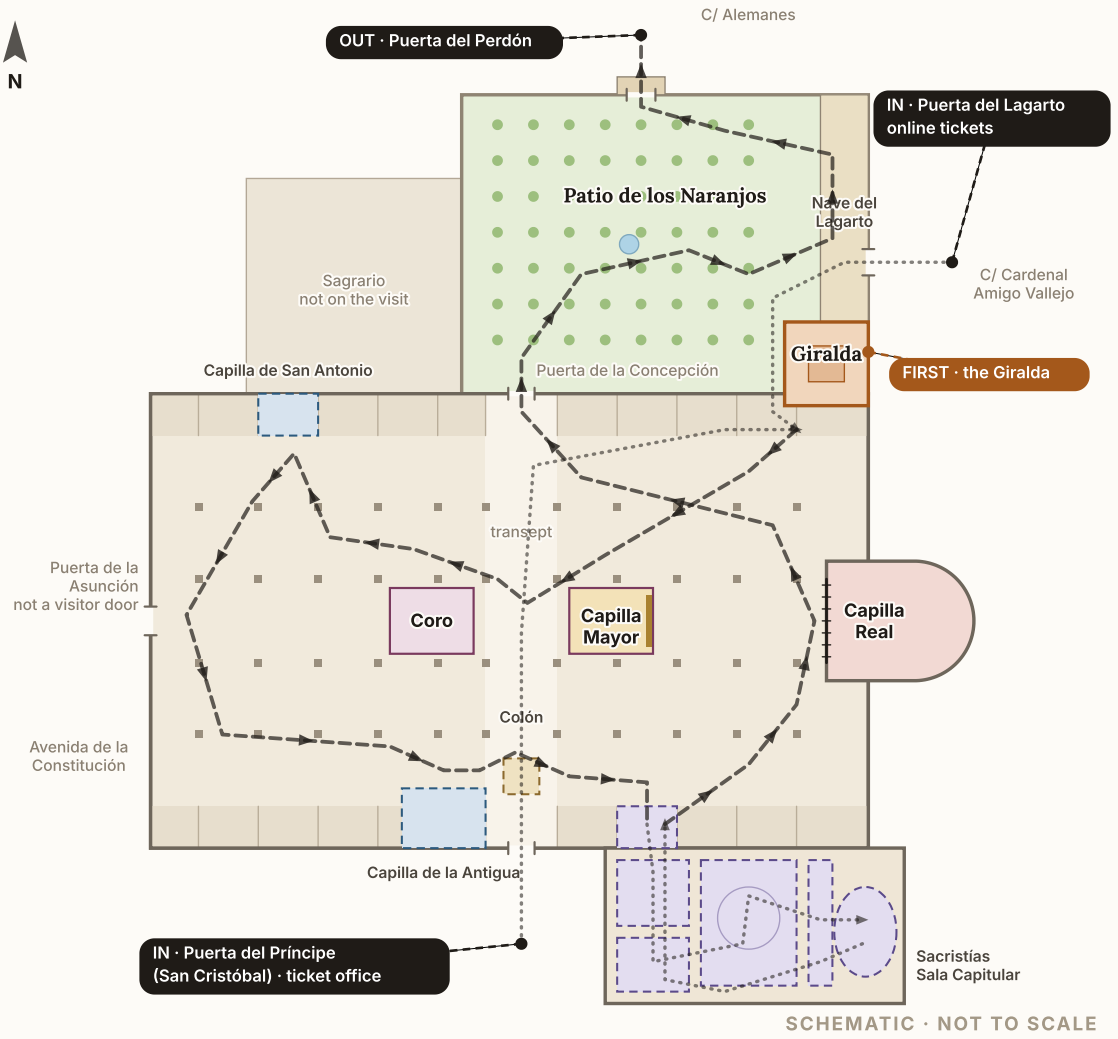

Catedral de Sevilla and the Giralda

A mosque's tower and courtyard, the largest Gothic building in Europe and the rooms the canons built round it: 23 main stops plus 5 short Extras in one walking order, the Giralda first, in three lengths.

1 Spanish names as on the signs; look for the landmark. Every stop is named in Spanish, as on the signs, with one big thing to look for: the gilded altarpiece, four heralds carrying a coffin.

2 The coloured circle is the track to play there, in track order. Hollow circles are short, optional Extras, on the Full tour only. Pages 2 to 4 show every track in its place.

3 Each track ends by telling you where to go next. The plan is schematic, not to scale; dashed outlines are positions still to be confirmed on site.

SCHEMATIC · NOT TO SCALE

- Welcome 1
- Around the naves 11–13
- Royal chapel, to the courtyard 23–24
- La Giralda 2–6
- Columbus 14–15
- Patio de los Naranjos 25–27
- The heart of the cathedral 7–10
- Sacristies and chapter house 16–22
- The way out 28

The line shows the walking order, not the exact path. Dotted: the way from each door to the tower, and through the sacristies, still to be checked on site.

Whichever door you come in by, start at the Giralda, in the corner of the church by the courtyard. Then one loop round the church, and out through the Patio de los Naranjos and the Puerta del Perdón; once you are out you cannot come back in. Not climbing? Go to the tower door anyway and start at 7. The Capilla Real is for prayer only: you see it through its grille.

YO TOURS · CATEDRAL DE SEVILLA · THE GIRALDA

The Giralda · first, up and down

The visit begins at the tower, as the cathedral's own route does. You enter it from inside the church, in the corner nearest the courtyard: follow the signs for the Giralda. The Almohad minaret carries the Renaissance bell chamber; the Giraldillo turns on top.

2	Giralda · first ramps	The minaret of 1184
3	Giralda · ramps	Thirty-four ramps
4	Giralda · bell level	The view from the bells
5	Giralda · bell level	Extra Twenty-four bells
6	Giralda · on the way down	From mosque to cathedral
7	Catedral · at the foot of the Giralda	A hollow mountain

Ramps, not stairs

The way up winds round the core of the tower on 34 ramps. One-way rule: going up and coming down, always keep to your right. No wheelchairs or pushchairs.

Listen as you go

Start 2 on the first ramps and 3 a few turns up. 4 (and the Extra, 5) are for the bell level, the top of the climb. 6 is for the way down: no need to stop. At the bottom, step just inside the church, out of the way of the tower door, for 7.

Not climbing?

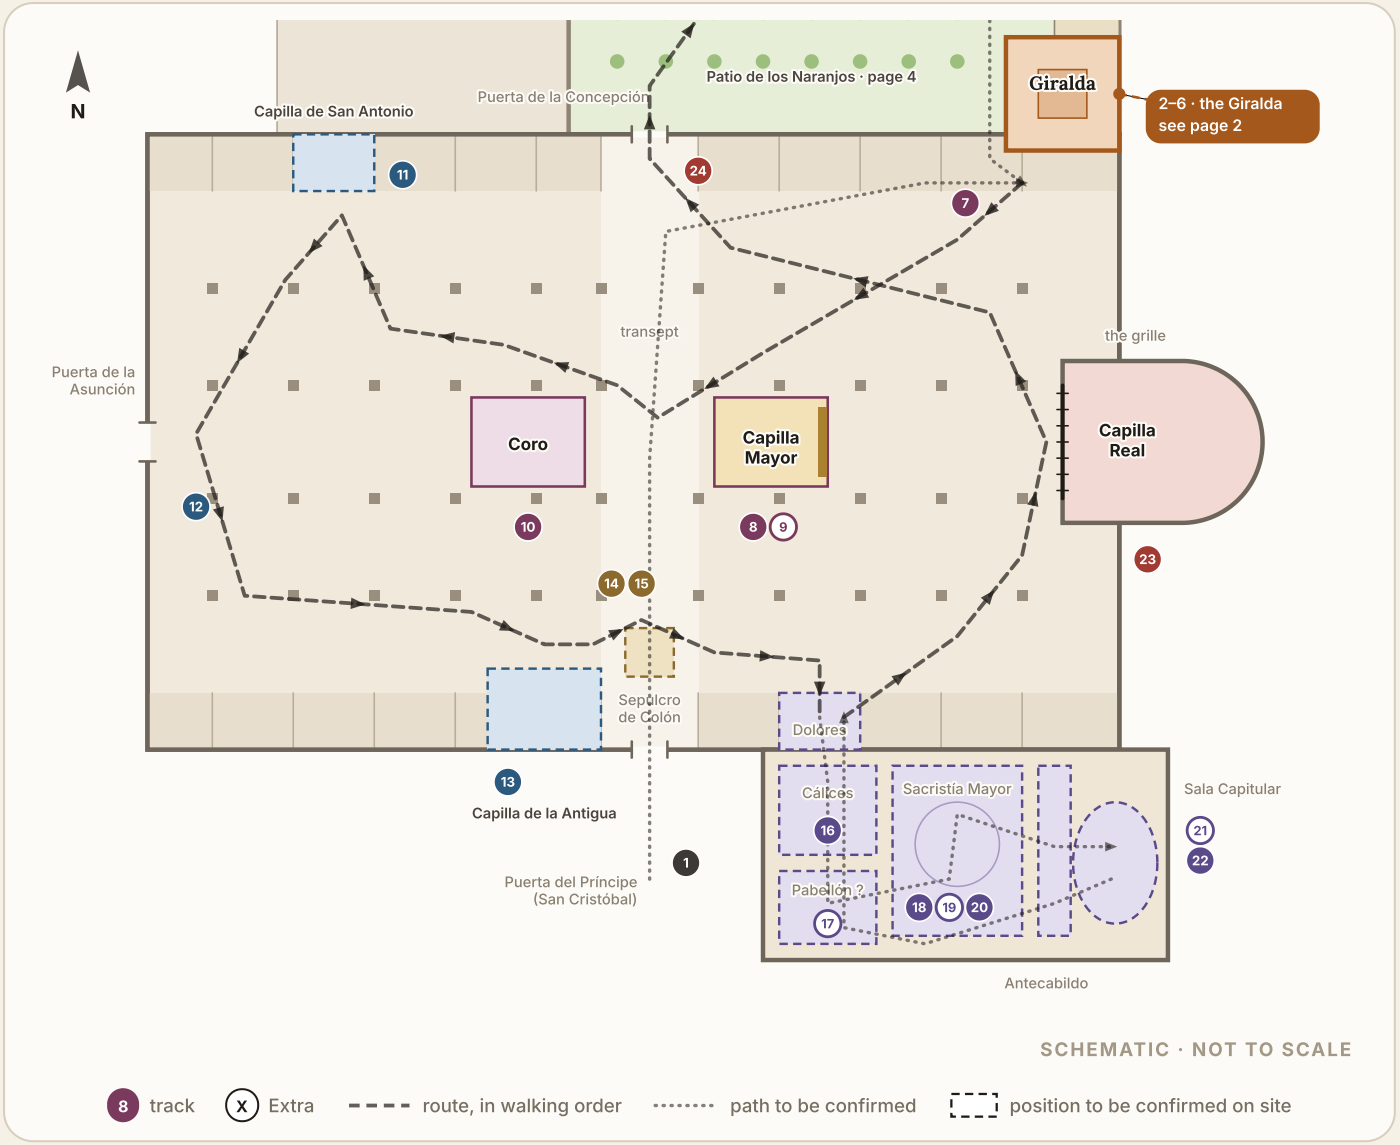

Go to the tower door anyway and start at 7, at the foot of the Giralda.

Works on the tower

Restoration of the bell level and the Renaissance crown began in April 2026; the visit carries on, but parts of the view may be screened.

The loop inside · 7 to 24

From the foot of the tower to the middle: the Capilla Mayor and the Coro. Round the church: San Antonio, the west end, the Antigua and Columbus by the Puerta del Príncipe. Through the sacristies to the Sala Capitular, back to the Capilla Real and on to the Puerta de la Concepción. The line gives the order, not the exact path.

The courtyard and the way out · 24 to 28

Through the Puerta de la Concepción, at the end of the transept on the tower side, into the mosque's old courtyard (25). Find a spot with a view of the top of the tower for the Giraldillo (26), then the covered gallery nearest the tower, the Nave del Lagarto, with the crocodile overhead (27), and out through the Puerta del Perdón (28).

24 Puerta de la Concepción · north transept

25 Patio de los Naranjos

28 Puerta del Perdón
The way out

The way out is the Puerta del Perdón, the tall arched gateway in the middle of the far side of the courtyard, opposite the church. Once you pass through it, the visit is over and there is no way back in, so see the Giralda from the courtyard (26) and the Nave del Lagarto (27) first. If the staff send you into the courtyard by another door than the Concepción, follow the Salida signs.

On the shorter tours

Essential goes from the Sala Capitular (22), and Highlights from Columbus's tomb (14), straight to the courtyard (25), through the same door at the end of the transept on the tower side. Both then end at the Puerta del Perdón (28).

The stops

Every track in walking order: # on your player, the place as the guide names it, minutes of listening, and the lengths it belongs to (Full, just over 1 h 30; Essential, about 1 h 15; Highlights, about 45 min; all with the Giralda, walking included). Hollow circles are Extras.
