Before you start

A few things to know on the ground. No prices, hours or tickets here: check them with the club before your visit.

Not the stadium

This guide is for the museum ticket. It does not take you into the stadium: no pitch, no stands, no dressing room. You see the stadium from outside and from the viewpoint over the works.

Headphones

Listen on headphones, at a volume low enough to hear what is around you and the staff.

The show

In the round room, stop the guide while the show plays. The club does not recommend the show for people with epilepsy or photosensitivity, and asks them to tell the staff before going in.

Room order may change

The museum may move its displays. Every track names what to look for, and the trophy and history stops work in any order. Where the ground differs, follow the museum's signs and staff.

Offline

Once the MP3s are on your phone, the guide needs no signal and no data.

Out of the way

Stand to one side of doors, the ticket check, the displays and the rail; let other visitors pass.

The works

The stadium is still being finished. Stay behind every barrier and never step onto the works.

Shorter versions

In Essential and Highlights the numbers jump. A short spoken line at the end of a track tells you where the next one is.

If a display or a space is not where the guide expects it

The museum is a temporary one, and its rooms can change. Each track already says where else it can be heard.

A quiet corner	017–020	No bench or rest area? Any quiet corner out of the flow, away from the loud screens.
A history display	013–016	Not where you expect it? Play the track wherever the story is shown; if you can't find it, any quiet spot nearby.
The round room	024–025	Stop the guide during the show; play 025 just outside the room, or inside once the show has ended.
The models	026–027	Elsewhere or gone? Play 026 wherever the route first reaches the stadium.
The viewpoint	028	Crowded at the rail? Step back to any spot with a view of the stands.
The old benches	029–033	Full? Stand beside them, out of the way; the Extras can be heard anywhere quiet nearby.
The way out	034	If the way out is back past the viewpoint, play it there before you leave.

These drawings are our own schematics, not to scale and not the club's maps, made from the guide's own directions. Where the ground differs, follow the museum's signs and staff.
